Certificate IV in Community Services

This nationally accredited qualification is delivered in partnership with Carers Queensland's Registered Training Organisation (RTO).

This course will assist you in becoming a compassionate, strong, and approachable professional capable of working autonomously with clients, groups and services in mental health, domestic and family violence, alcohol and drug addiction, and child protection.

CAREER PROSPECTS

The Certificate IV in Community Services will equip you with the skills required to work in community and domestic violence counselling and support, women's health and outreach, Aboriginal health education and more.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

You will need to have basic computer skills (e.g., the ability to access and use word processing applications, email and internet), a reliable internet connection and a working computer or laptop.

You will also be able to deal with the physical demands of manual tasks (e.g., bending, squatting, kneeling, and repetitive movements, carrying) and be able to be on your feet for extended periods of time as all community services positions require high personal mobility.

COURSE DELIVERY AND DURATION OPTIONS

- Various learning plans via our e-learning platform and Zoom.

COURSE FEES

This qualification is funded under the Certificate 3 Guarantee VET Investment Program.

For Your Caring Way clients engaged with the program, the cost will be $10 full-fee and $5 for concession. Please be sure to discuss this with your Vocational Support Planner.
